Buyers Terms & Conditions

Please read the following carefully as a sale at auction is not a consumer sale under the Sale of Goods act.

All other conditions as may be lawfully excluded are hereby excluded.

(1) Inspection, Description & Auctioneer's responsibilities.

The Auctioneers have relied upon descriptions furnished by Vendors in the preparation of this catalogue. The Auctioneers are not therefore responsible for the descriptions of lots shown in this catalogue, nor does this catalogue form a part of the contract of sale.

Potential buyers are invited to inspect the goods on sale to their satisfaction prior to bidding for any item.

The Auctioneers act as agents only and cannot be held responsible for any default by Purchaser or Vendor.

The Auctioneers, while using their best efforts to describe equipment in this catalogue accurately and to publish any alteration or amendment to the description of a lot on their catalogue supplement accept no liability in the event that an item is misdescribed in the catalogue as a consequence of the vendor supplying incorrect information or otherwise.

(2) Warranty

No warranty is given or implied on any of the lots offered in this catalogue. All lots are sold with all faults and errors of description and neither the vendor nor the Auctioneer are responsible for the authentically, provenance attribution of ownership, date, age, condition or quality of any lot. All statements in the catalogue as to any such matters are statements of options and not to be relied upon as statements or representation of fact. Intending purchasers must satisfy themselves by inspection or otherwise to all such matters and to the physical description of any lot. TBC recyclers and auctioneers will accept no claims for loss or damage thereafter. No compensation shall be paid.

(3) Care of Goods:

While the auctioneers will exercise every reasonable care in the supervision, transport & storage of goods, goods are held at the responsibility & risk of the vendor until the fall of the hammer, and are the responsibility & risk of the purchaser from the fall of the hammer. Buyers who are unable to clear their purchases from the sale site on the day of the sale are advised to make their own insurance arrangements in respect of goods bought at the auction.

(4) Bidder Registration/Deposits

Bids will only be accepted from bidders who have obtained a bidder number from the Auctioneers on sale day.

We require a fully returnable £50 deposit from all bidders. This deposit will be returned on our receipt of your bidder card, or deducted from your invoice.

A buyers commission of 12.5% + VAT (VAT is charged on the commission only) will be added to all bids on lots. The seller can place a reserve on any lot and the auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the seller. A 4% surcharge will be added to any credit card transactions.

(5) Conduct of Sale

Normal auction procedures will be followed. The highest bidder will be the purchaser.

Bidding will proceed in such increments as the auctioneer dictates. The Auctioneers reserve the right to bid on behalf of persons absent from the sale room.

The highest bidder shall be the purchaser and no person shall retract a bidding, and should any dispute arise between any two bidders (or more bidders), the lot in dispute shall be offered again or not at the discretion of the auctioneer who is to be the sole arbitrator of any matters of dispute during the sales. The vendors reserve the right to bid.

Where two or more consecutive lots are similar in quantity and description, the buyer of the first item will be offered the option of buying the second and, (if required subsequent lots or any of them), at the same price.

All buyers are deemed to have read and understood our terms and conditions as confirmed in the catalog. All buyers' accounts are to be settled within 24 hours.

The purchaser shall give their name and address and may be required to pay a deposit of 25 pence in the pound in part payment, or the whole of the purchase money. The deposit paid by the purchaser on any lot shall be reckoned as a deposit on each and all of the lots booked in his or her name. The purchaser must not share his/her registration number with any other person's; i.e. one invoice per customer.

No bidder shall advance less than a sum to be named by the auctioneer, and he has the right to refuse any bid.

- The auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bidding or to withdraw any lots from the sale.

(6) Clearance of Purchases

The premises will remain open for clearance of purchases for 2 hours after the close of bidding. Buyers may settle their accounts and remove their purchases at any time during the course of the auction, but this facility is offered at the discretion of the auctioneers, and goods must be removed in such a fashion as not to disrupt the progress of the sale.

Goods which are not collected on sale day will be removed to the auctioneer's storage facilities. The Auctioneers reserve

All lots must be taken and cleared away at the purchaser's expense between the hours of 9:30 am - 5:00 pm on the day following the sale. The remainder of the purchase money being paid previous to delivery of goods or part thereof.

Upon failure of compliance with the above conditions, or any of the purchasers neglecting or refusing to clear away his or her lot, any deposit money shall be forfeited and the lots that remain uncleared after the limited time shall be re-sold by public or private sale and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all the charges attending the same, whether or not a deposit has been paid. Any surplus shall be retained by the auctioneers. The condition is without prejudice to the right of the auctioneer to enforce the contract made at this sale, without such re-sale if he thinks fit.

Goods purchased at the sale and not cleared the following day by 4.00 pm, will be charged at the rate of £5.00 per day per lot. Storage for vehicles at the rate of £25.00 per day per car.

(7) Payment
